There's positively not a tie in this whole purchase that sens for less than a dollar when bought under ordinary conditions. Every one is made of silks which are used in ties selling at that price and higher. But there are only two or three of a kind, because they are made of silks which the neckwear drummers have carried as samples. There's just about enough material in a sample for a finished tie. We bought all this season's samples from a prominent maker; that explains how we got neckwear to retail at such a price.

It was made under our own supervision, all in the narrow four-in-hand style which is so popular and so suitable for wear with the high band collars. The silks are the highest grade made, and are shown in light and dark patterns and plenty of the popular white figures. All are lined with black pongee silk, It's the biggest Neckwear offering you ever saw. Sale begins promptly at 8.15 to-morrow morning; cho se at

Boys'& Youths' Suits Under Gost To-Morrow

It's the maker's loss, not ours. But the saving opportunity is just as attractive and important to you in either case. The manufacturer took a heavy reduction in price because we bought every garment that he had, and left his workrooms clear and ready for him to begin work on fall and winter goods. The season will probably not bring another equal opportunity to get similar suits.
